PASTORAL LEADERSHIP LEARNING GOALS ACTION PLAN LEXINGTON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Student Name:

With your Local Mentor (LM), identify one or two Pastoral Leadership Learning Goal(s) (PLLG) that you will explore together. (See sample PLLG form).

NOTE: A. Complete your first form by the end of your second meeting with your LM and with each new Goal cycle on January 15 and July 15 each following year. B. Complete the evaluation section at end of a six month Goal cycle (each January 15 & July 15) and give copies to your LM, Ministry Support Committee (MSC) and send as an e-mail attachment to the Professor of Pastoral Leadership (smonhollen@lextheo.edu).

At the end of six months, the student will be able to (Note: You can choose the same Goal more than once).

- Understand and practice study as a form of prayer
- Understand and practice that we study on behalf of a community of faith and its vision of ministry
- Identify the degree of congruence of his or her personal journey with the leadership, skills and responsibilities of pastoral leadership
- Identify and assess congregational context and potential for ministry
- Use critical thinking in response to ethical, social and/or congregational change
- Site examples of the integration of intellectual, spiritual and practical elements of ministry
